RESPONSIBILITIES
These tour programs are operated by Pilgrim Tours and Travel, Inc., 3071 Main Street, Morgantown, Pennsylvania 19543. In common with other companies, Pilgrim acts only as an agent for tour members in arranging vacation services offered on this web site, including transportation, sightseeing, and accommodations through independent contractors. Air carriers, accommodations, and other suppliers (including but not limited to trains, cruises, ferries, motor coaches, hotels, tour guides, and restaurants) providing these services are independent contractors and are not agents, employees, servants, or joint ventures of the Company or its affiliates. All travel documents for services issued by the Company are subject to the terms & conditions specified by the contracted supplier, which are available upon request, and are subject to the laws of the countries in which the services are supplied. Tours postponed, suspended, or cancelled due to but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorist acts, political unrest, epidemics, or pandemics are subject to service fees by Pilgrim Tours. In registering for a tour, tour members agree to the terms and conditions for the tour they have registered for. Pilgrim Tours and Someday Travel reserve the right in its sole discretion to make changes in the itinerary and is not responsible for expenses, loss of time, money, or other incidents resulting from a change of tour scheduling made for tour members. Pilgrim Tours and Someday Travel are not responsible for any losses or damages of personal property, injuries, thefts, sickness or unforeseen expenses incurred by any tour member.

TOUR MEMBERSHIP & MOBILITY REQUIREMENTS
Tour membership is available to all travelers and will not be withheld if the tour operator can furnish the requirements that an individual may need. Because most of our Retail Tour sightseeing schedules require Tour Members to walk 1-2 miles at a time using a moderate pace and sometimes navigate uneven terrain, we cannot accept persons who cannot do that and instead require special assistance. Should any Tour Member's participation somehow materially add to the tour operator's cost, the Tour Member will be expected to pay any additional costs. The Tour Director retains the right to require any non-sufficiently mobile persons to stay behind when deemed necessary, and also terminate the membership of any member displaying disruptive behavior, delaying or endangering fellow members and/or interfering with the operations of the tour. Private group tours vary in regards to mobility standards.

PROOF OF US CITIZENSHIP, PASSPORT, VISA & MINOR CHILDREN REQUIREMENTS
All international tours require a current passport. Entrance to most countries requires your passport be valid for 6 months after your return date. Your passport information must be recorded by a Pilgrim Tours agent when making your reservation. Names on airline tickets must appear as shown on passport. Photocopies are not acceptable forms of identification. Minors traveling with either one parent or no parents must have a certified letter of permission from the parent or parents who is/are not traveling. If requested, this letter must be presented. Non U. S. Citizens are responsible to fulfill appropriate entry requirements of the destination country. Contact the local Consulate of the countries you plan to visit and transit for entry requirement information.

AIR TRANSPORTATION
For your convenience, Pilgrim Tours is happy to help book your airfare. Pilgrim Tours will offer airfare options that best coincide with our land tour schedule. Your airfare will be quoted inclusive of all fuel, taxes and fees and will be quoted as non-refundable unless otherwise noted. Airline ticketing fee's may appear as a separate charge on your credit card. Quoted airfare rates are subject to change until paid in full. Assigned seating may be limited and may not be available on every flight or departure date. Since most airlines now charge for assigned seats, there may be supplements in addition to the quoted airfare to confirm assigned seats. Most group air contracts do not allow for assigned seats in advance. Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for unforeseen flight delays or changes due to war, political unrest, acts of God, epidemics or pandemics. Air schedules may be subject to change at the discretion of the airline. Pilgrim Tours does not accept liability in the case of any passenger being denied boarding by any airline carrier due to the carrier's overbooking of a flight.

BAGGAGE
Although every effort is made to handle passengers' luggage as carefully as possible, Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for and does not assume liability or accept claims for loss of or damage to luggage due to breakage, theft or wear and tear through hotel, group carrier or airline handling. There are limitations by coach and air carrier as to the number and size of bags which can be carried onboard and in bulk storage. However, during the tour, passengers are permitted one checked suitcase and one carry-on bag unless otherwise noted. Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. Please contact the airline or refer to the airlines website for detailed information regarding checked baggage policies. This is a fee levied by the airlines, not Pilgrim Tours, and may be subject to change.

TRAVEL INSURANCE - AVAILABLE FOR ALL PASSENGERS
Pilgrim Tours strongly suggests purchasing a travel insurance plan. Be sure to check with your health insurance provider as many US medical coverage plans may not cover you outside of the country. Insurance costs are based on the total tour cost, including air taxes and charges listed under "Not Included." These charges are added to the final billing. Approximate amounts can be given at time of reservation in order to purchase the appropriate amount of insurance. Travel Insurance is non-refundable.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CROATIA, BOSNIA & HERZEGOVINA
12 Day Tour | September 9-20, 2024

Itinerary subject to change while touring for the best interest of the group.

Monday, Sept. 9: Departure
We depart Chicago O'Hare today for our overnight flight. Sit back and enjoy the in-flight entertainment.

Tuesday, Sept. 10: Croatia - Arrive in Zagreb
Upon arrival in Zagreb, Croatia's largest city, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure. Dinner is included at the hotel; overnight in Zagreb. (D)

Wednesday, Sept. 11: Croatia – Zagreb
Today we enjoy a guided walking tour of the city. We will visit the main square and then tour the impressive Neo-Gothic Zagreb Cathedral before enjoying the unique experience of the Dolac Market, Croatia's largest farmers market. The market usually closes around 3 PM, so be sure to explore while the market is still in full operation. If it is open today, we will pay a short visit to Gric Tunnel, a WWII bomb shelter and evacuation tunnel that has been remodeled into a historical display of Croatia and Zagreb. Taking a ride on the world's shortest funicular, we arrive in the medieval Upper Town of the city where our tour takes us to the Lotrščak Tower, the Strossmayer promenade, the Croatian Parliament and St. Mark's Church with its eye-catching colorful roof. Dinner will be on your own tonight; Tkalciceva Street, known for its varied restaurants, pubs and cafes, may be a good place to explore for dinner. Overnight in Zagreb. (B)

Thursday, Sept. 12: Croatia - Plitvice Lakes National Park
After breakfast we travel to the Plitvice Lakes National Park which is the oldest national park in southeast Europe and the largest national park in Croatia. The national park is world famous for its lakes arranged in cascades and spectacular waterfalls. It is a Unesco World Heritage site. We will spend the evening at a nearby hotel, allowing some time for relaxation and dinner, included in our stay. Overnight in the national park. (B,D)

Friday, Sept. 13: Croatia – Zadar, Sibenik, Split
This afternoon we will travel to Zadar, a beautiful Adriatic town on the Dalmatian coast and home of an unusual instrument, a sea organ. The Sea Organ is a set of marble steps with special tubes located underneath; the waves rolling in create a very unique concert for visitors. Zadar is a quieter city away from the heavier crowds of some other locations. It's early history dates back to ancient Rome, and our guide will take us to the ancient Roman Forum to see the city's Old Town. At the waterfront, ruins can still be seen from an earthquake that hit the city in the 6th century. Continuing south along the coast, we enjoy a brief stop in Sibenik, known as a gateway to the Kornati Islands, before arriving in the town of Split where we will have dinner and overnight. (B,D)

Saturday, Sept. 14: Croatia - Split
This morning we enjoy a guided tour of the city; Split grew up under Emperor Diocletian's vast Roman palace, one of the largest and best-preserved left from the Roman world. The building of this vast complex began in 284 A.D. The Old Town is located in the same area as the palace, and a number of cafes, shops and restaurants can be found on Narodni Trg (People's Square). This afternoon is free to relax, explore the city, enjoy the beach and get dinner on our own. The Riva Promenade is a lovely waterfront walk along the harbor and a great place to watch the sun set. We will overnight in Split. (B)

Sunday, Sept. 15: Bosnia and Herzegovina – Krevice Falls, Mostar
This morning we will take our bus into nearby Bosnia and Herzegovina, stopping at the stunning Krevice Falls. While it will probably be a bit chilly for swimming this time of year, we can still get our feet wet in the beautiful blue-green waters below the falls before continuing on to famous Mostar. This city was on the trade route between the Adriatic and mineral rich regions of central Bosnia.

The world-famous Old Bridge has recently been restored with many of the same stones as the original and is one of the city's more recognizable landmarks. The cobblestone streets of the Old Town are equally interesting. It is situated on the Neretva River and was named after the bridge keepers who in medieval times guarded the Stari Most (Old Bridge). We will have dinner and overnight in Mostar for the next two evenings. (B,D)

Monday, Sept. 16: Bosnia and Herzegovina – Sarajevo
Today we have 3 options: Your first option is to travel by bus to Sarajevo, the capital and largest city of Bosnia and Herzegovina, for a guided walking tour of this beautiful city. Here we will find a strong blend of various histories and peoples. From Bascarsija Square, a 15th century outdoor market, to World War I and the scene of Archduke Franz Ferdinand's assassination, this city has found itself in the center of many power struggles over the years. Following lunch on our own in the city center, we will return to Mostar for dinner on our own. Your second option is to remain in Mostar for a free day. The third option is on this free day you may take a bus to The Holy Shrine of Madjugorje, price not included in trip cost. It is about 17 miles from Mostar and bus cost is about $4 each way. (B)

Tuesday, Sept. 17: Stolac, Dubrovnik
After breakfast, we head towards the Mediterranean coast once again. Stolac is a small but beautiful town dating back to ancient days. The area is well known for its lovely rivers, lakes and waterfalls. Our guide will take us to Radimlja Necropolis, an ancient cemetery known for its beautifully preserved tombstones from the 14th and 15th centuries. In the Old Town we will see the medieval streets and houses as we learn of the town's history and its part in the Ottoman Empire. Enjoy lunch on our own before the journey south along the coast until we come to our final hotel in Dubrovnik. Any remaining time is free to explore on our own. Dinner will be at our Dubrovnik hotel, where we will spend the next three nights. (B,D)

Wednesday, Sept. 18: Croatia - Dubrovnik
This city is a jewel encased in city walls. It is set in the limpid waters of the Adriatic Sea. Dubrovnik is a top international tourist destination of Dalmatia. George Bernard Shaw baptized Dubrovnik "the pearl of the Adriatic" because of its incomparable architectural heritage. The gleaming marble streets are lined with baroque buildings punctuated by beautifully sculpted Renaissance fountains and facades. Once it was a maritime republic rivaling Venice. A walking tour of the city will take us to the Old Town's Franciscan Monastery, the Stradun monument, Onofrio's Fountain, the Rector's Palace, the Sponza Palace and the Cathedral of the Assumption. After lunch on our own, we will enjoy getting a unique perspective of the city and its situation on the coast by taking a historical walking tour along its ancient walls. We will be on our own for dinner this evening. Overnight in Dubrovnik. (B)

Thursday, Sept. 19: Croatia – Dubrovnik (Free Day, Optional Elaphite Islands Cruise Excursion)
Today is free for relaxing, shopping and exploring on our own. An optional excursion will be offered for those who wish to do some more guided sightseeing. Further details will be forthcoming, but the tentative plan is for a cruise of the Elaphite Islands, possibly including a meal aboard the cruise.

Friday, Sept. 20: Home
We transfer to the airport in Dubrovnik this morning and fly home. (B)

PRICE PER PERSON:
BASED ON DOUBLE OCCUPANCY

$6,198.00***

**Includes roundtrip international air from Chicago*

Single Supplement:
$950.00

Optional Excursion (Day 11):
TBD
