

SOMEDAY TRAVEL

Germany's Magical Bavaria & /Switzerland's Alpine Splendor September 6-16, 2017

Information Form

Valerie & Wayne Graczyk, Tour Directors

Persons traveling must be able to participate in the physical activities that may be necessary on any trip. In fairness to the other travelers, you must be able to keep up with the group on walking tours and be in full command of your faculties. The ability to walk comfortably at an even pace is necessary.

PHYSICAL/MENTAL LIMITATIONS

If you are impaired either physically or mentally, or have any serious health issues that may hamper your ability to walk with or stay up with the group (but you still wish to go on the trip), you will need to provide a personal escort for yourself and this person must pay the regular tour fee. This person will need to remain with you in the event you cannot participate fully in any specific tour. Also, if you have a tendency to lose or misplace items, i.e., airline ticket, camera, purse, etc., your personal escort will be the party responsible for working with you and us to resolve it if possible. For lost passports, your personal escort will be the party responsible for going to the American Embassy to replace it. If you would need medical care at any point related to your stated disability, your personal escort will need to stay with you and be your advocate at a healthcare facility. However, Valerie and Wayne will work with the travel agency on your behalf to support you in any crisis, as they would with any other traveler experiencing difficulties.

INSURANCE:

Both medical and cancellation insurance are mandatory for Someday Travel Trips.

(Travelers will need to submit a copy of the policy to Someday Travel before trip)

Someday Travel recommends Pilgrim Tour's insurance program through Allianz Travel Insurance, but travelers can purchase their insurance from whatever provider they wish. This insurance is secondary, not primary, which means costs incurred are paid by traveler upfront and bills are submitted to their primary medical insurance for reimbursement, then to Allianz Insurance for anything not covered, if applicable. You should compare plans before you purchase (use benefit table listed on back of brochure). Someday Travel requires cancellation/medical insurance for all travelers. This is for your own protection.

Insurance cost is 6.5% of total trip cost. For this trip the cost per person is $4,498.00. So 6.5% is $292.37 for insurance. For two people it is 6.5% of $8,996.00. If are traveling as a single be sure to include this to our overall trip cost. Make checks payable to Pilgrim Tours but send in to Someday Travel along with deposit and Pilgrim Reservation Form

If you have a Pre-existing Medical Condition, and you have taken Allianz, you must purchase your insurance policy before making final trip payment. (However, we strongly suggest that you pay with your initial deposit)

Cancel for any reason” coverage is available for 8.7% of trip cost and refunds passengers UP TO 80% of the trip cost. Cancel for any reason insurance MUST BE PURCHASED at or before final trip payment. . .see Terms and Conditions). (Be aware that this option reimburses you UP TO 80% and not necessarily the full 80%, but it is your choice)

When talking with any insurance representative, you should ask for coverage that has:

- Medical and cancellation component & if it covers pre-existing conditions and when your insurance policy must be purchased for it to cover you.
- Ask what is covered and in what amounts (compare to Allianz Benefits).
- Ask if they offer “Cancel for any reason” coverage and at what cost?
- Do they cover medical situations in a foreign country (most don’t) and how that is to be handled. This becomes important since Allianz is Secondary so you need to know if your insurance covers any medical bills from a foreign country. If they don’t cover any than having Allianz is beneficial.

Critical Point: Please do not wait or delay in purchasing your travel insurance if you have a Pre-existing condition. Most insurance carriers allow you from 15-21 days to purchase insurance after making your initial deposit for the trip. This varies from company to company but it is something you need to check out and be aware of if you have pre-existing conditions and another reason we recommend Allianz. Feel free to call if you need any additional clarification, Valerie, 920-539-0195 or Wayne, 920-539-0085.

Another reason Someday Travel recommends going through Pilgrim Tours Allianz insurance plan is that travelers may purchase travel insurance up to the final trip payment AND will cover pre-existing conditions if policy is purchased prior to final trip payment. Most insurance carriers require policy to be purchased within 15-21 days of when deposit is made.

Someday Travel strongly recommends that all travelers purchase their insurance with their initial deposit to avoid any difficulties later on. You do this right on the Pilgrim Reservation Form.

ADDITIONAL MONEY/EXPENSES: Travelers will be expected to bring additional sufficient funds for other expenses, such as meals not covered, souvenirs and/or other personal expenditures.

PAYMENT and CANCELLATION POLICY: See Pilgrim Tours Brochure for Terms and Conditions. Please read this information carefully. It is printed on their Reservation Form and on the back of the brochure.
