

TESTIMONIAL FOR SOMEDAY TRAVEL

“This summer, my daughter Lynn and I sailed the eastern seaboard of the United States into Canada with a well-respected cruise line. While our travel experience was very enjoyable, I couldn’t help comparing our ocean voyage with the river cruise that we have experienced with Someday Travel. The most obvious difference: Valerie and Wayne’s commitment to providing personal attention to travelers

After I committed to the ocean cruise, I began to anticipate mailings with information that would guide our planning and packing. Nothing came. After several weeks we realized that information, of a generic nature, was on their web site and it was up to us to seek help.

What a contrast to Someday Travel. From the moment we committed to traveling with Wayne & Valerie, we received detailed itineraries and travel guides. Someday Travel’s experienced team anticipated our needs and provided details about every aspect of our trips, alleviating anxiety thus ensuring that nothing was forgotten. My daughter and I traveled with Valerie and Wayne on a Rhine River Cruise and also on a Danube River Cruise. Each was a spectacular experience in large measure because Valerie & Wayne personalized the trips for us and created an environment in which strangers became friends.”
